Subject: microsoft settlement hello, this does not require a whole lot of extra hyperbolic trogonometry. its kind of like in "we hold these truths to self evident". it would be very difficult to think of something more inexcusable, preposterous, and obscene than to turn microsoft loose on the school system with their criminal scam. these are just impressionable childrem that don't know any better. i was wondering how long it would take them to jump on the terrorism bandwagon. sure enough, now they are renewing their efforts to stop "piracy" of their "software" to fight terrorism. not only do they need to be split up, they need to just flat out be shutdown. what reasonable person is not against terrorism but using "fighting terrorism" to further criminal agendas is beneath contempt. and it's not just that. everything they do is way out of line. how can anyone fail to see it? this proposed settlement is not only worse than nothing but actually leaves them in better position to do even worse than ever before than ever before. please do the right thing. yours truly carl ziegler
